

Conroy's Smallgoods – Royal Park

Food Production Workers Wanted

Now made in Royal Park!

Conroy's is looking for interest in joining our production team at our Manufacturing Facility at Royal Park.

A variety of roles are being considered at present as we look to expand our products and extend our manufacturing in food.

Must be physically capable and willing to be engaged food manufacturing work. We are looking for reliable and capable workers that are willing to learn and would like to be a part of this long-established family business.

There is opportunity to try different roles and a variety of work as the business embraces a new culture of Continuous Improvement, Safety and well-being. The organisation is establishing itself again after 46 years of manufacturing at Bowden.

Uniform will be provided along with PPE.

Up to 5 days per week commitment in the popular area of food manufacture.

If you are interested, please contact our General Manager; Richard Rawlings

Phone: (08) 8346 5821

Richard.Rawlings@conroys.net.au

Conroy's Smallgoods – Royal Park

Our roles extend across all areas of food production including cooking, manufacturing, packing, warehousing distribution and retail sales through our Butcher Shop.

To be considered, you must have:

- Availability to start immediately
- Full working rights
- Flexibility to work within a full workday (we operate from 6am to ~6pm)
- Previous food experience in either commercial or industrial kitchens, and/or manufacturing facilities is great, but not essential
- Ability to perform physical and repetitive work
- Recent and demonstrated work history including 2 current referees

Work on offer includes, but is not limited to:

- Line work
- Production cooking
- Machine operation
- Preparing raw materials and products
- Cleaning of workstations, equipment and machinery
- Wrapping, labelling and packing
- Manual handling tasks and material handling equipment
- Inventory and materials management
- Distribution

Casual work with flexibility on hours is on offer

Conroy's Manufacturing facility operates Monday to Friday while the retail operations continue over the weekends.

We have a great team of people with loyal customers that are integral to our business and are part of the Conroy's family business. We will welcome you to our team and encourage people to grow and develop with the business.

We are actively looking at training our team to Certificate III in Meat Processing and strengthening our credentials around Quality, Value and excellent food hygiene.

If you contact us, you will be talking to the people that you will work with – not an agency or labour hire representative!